

Seminars and training

We invite you to take part in trainings conducted by the Institute of Precision Mechanics:

- The lecturers and lecturers are qualified employees of the Institute.
- Participants after passing the exam receive a certificate of completion of the training.
- Classes are conducted at the Institute.
- On special request trainings at workplaces are organized, including at workstations, with scope and subject matter tailored to the client's needs.